

How Leaders Can Inspire Accountability

Michael Timms is an internationally sought-after speaker, consultant and best-selling author who teaches leaders how to inspire greatness in their teams. Michael is the author of the book How Leaders Can Inspire Accountability which the world's #1 leadership coach, Marshall Goldsmith, called "the ultimate guide for embracing accountability as a leader" and is the basis of his renowned TEDx talk. His first book, Succession Planning That Works, received critical acclaim as "an invaluable guide for identifying, and taking advantage of, talent within organizations."

Empowering leaders to inspire accountability and drive high-performance cultures with simple, proven strategies.

Book

Discover leadership habits that inspire big results in those you lead.

Check out the book here.

TEDx Talk

Learn three simple steps to empower yourself and others to create positive change at work and home.

Watch "How to Claim Your Leadership Power" here.

Keynote Presentation

Building on the insights from his acclaimed TEDx Talk, Michael Timms guides managers like you to discover powerful leadership habits to help you unleash your team's hidden potential. Explore the secrets that drive accountability, fuel motivation, alleviate stress, and cultivate a culture where everyone strives for excellence. Be prepared to redefine your leadership and inspire greatness in others.

Testimonials

"Michael has earned the reputation as one of MacKay CEO Forums' highest rated and most sought after speakers for his thought-provoking content and engaging delivery."

- Nancy MacKay, Founder, MacKay CEO Forums

"Michael's message is as important today as The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People was in its time."

- Debbie Wershler, President, BOWEN

"Michael's dynamic interaction with the audience kept everyone thoroughly engaged, making his session a highlight of our conference."

- Brian Marvel, President, PORAC

Featured By

